MARINE COMPOSITE RECONNAISSANCE SQUADRON 1 MARINE AIRCRAFT GROUP 12, 1ST MARINE AIRCRAFT WING AIRCRAFT, FLEET MARINE FORCE PACIFIC

THE MISSION OF VMCJ

TO CONDUCT AERIAL PHOTOGRAPHIC RECONNAISSANCE, AIRBORNE ELECTRONIC RECONNAISSANCE, AIRBORNE ELECTRONIC AND COMMUNICATIONS COUNTERMEASURES IN SUPPORT OF FLEET MARINE FORCE OPERATIONS

COMANDING OFFICER

Lt Col J. B. GRAVES, U. S. Marine Corps

Lt.Col GRAVES entered Marine Aviation in 1942, was commissioned June, 1943, served in the South Pacific Theater, flying Corsairs, and completed 90 combat missions. Post-war assignments with numerous squadrous and staff billets, terminated in Korea with the completion of 109 combat missions.

Following Korea, there was duty with SOS, SOES, SMS, VMF-122, VT-35, Senior School, and Assistant G-3, 3rd MAW. The Skipper took command of VMCJ-3 in October, 1962, which on 3 November, 1963 deployed as a Cadre to become VMCJ-1 of the 1st MAW.

Lt.Col Graves calls Texas his home although his wife and four children reside in Tustin, California.

The Skipper's Message

This book is dedicated to the officers and men who, as VMCJ-3 and later as VMCJ-1, formed a team of professionals whose accomplishments and achievements are now history. But these efforts will long be remembered as a superb demonstration of not only the "Can do" attitude but also the "Did do" philosophy of an outstanding group of individuals.

To you, the members on the following pages, goes the credit for the many tasks exceedingly well done. True, there were demanding moments, unusual situations, occasional problems that appeared unsurmountable, and many long and hard hours. But these only served to make the overall capabilities more evident and the results more meaningful.

Throughout these two years there has been little need to wave a flag, to elucidate on the responsibilities to the Marine Corps or our country, or to hold any "Saturday pep talks." You have always been "up" for every game — every requirement, not, only the "Big ones" but also for those that may not have seemed so important, but were still won or accomplished for the pesonal sense and satisfaction of doing just a little better than the best. There was never any hesitation to do any job at hand regardless of the time of day or night or the "sweat" required.

This attitude has made the team what it has been for two years - the best outfit in the Marine Corps. It has been my good fortune and profound pleasure to have had the opportunity to serve with each of you. May God's providence be with you and the days and years to come the very best qossible.
